ECO walk at the Wilds (East), Houghton Drive, Houghton

There has been a change of date, and this will now take place on Saturday 8 October 2022 from 8h45 – 11h00. This 16 ha pristine nature reserve on the outskirts of Houghton is set against lovely Koppies with well-developed indigenous gardens, stone paths that ramble across the hillsides with views of the city from various sides. The East side has been newly renovated and provides a variety of interesting walks for the whole family. There is the “meditation walk” for quiet introspection and a slightly more strenuous walk to the “climbing rock” for the young and youthful at heart. Diarize this date now as it promises to be a great beginning of summer walk in the park! Those who wish to stay and have a picnic lunch after the walk or who still have energy to walk on the west side of the reserve are welcome to do so.
